YOU BECOME THE TEAM MANAGER

Replay these great old time teams over and over again. See how they do today with you as the manager. Change the batting orders if you wish, make your own pitching choices. Call on pinch hitters and pinch runners of your choice at such times when you think it's best.

You decide when to sacrifice, squeeze, hit and run. You coach the base runners and make defensive decisions, too.

Whatever way you use these players, they will perform, offensively and defensively, precisely as they did in the season their cards were computed to represent.
