Orlando APBA Association Individual Player Lifetime Statistics

Since its inception in 1988, the achievements of four players tower over the several hundred players who have appeared in the Orlando APBA Association; OF Barry Bonds and pitchers Greg Maddux, Roger Clemens and Mariano Rivera.

Bonds is the most dominant offensive player to have every played in OABPA.

- Bonds is the league's all time home run hitter with 294, fifteen more than runner up Alex Rodriguez.
- Bonds walked 833 times, 260 more free passes than runner up Chipper Jones.
- Bonds on-base percentage of .401 is the only OAPBA player with an OBP exceeding .400.
- His 1183 base hits is 26 more than runner-up Derek Jeter.
- Bonds 898 runs scored is 244 runs ahead of number two Alex Rodriguez.
- Bonds leads in doubles with 300.
- He ranks third in triples with 35

The only major batting category that Bonds does not lead, surprisingly, is runs batted in. Alex Rodriguez drove in 691 runs, seven more than Bonds.

On the basepaths, Kenny Lofton (right), who spent most of his career with the Devils, is OAPBA's all-time stolen base leader with 279 SB, 21 more than Rickey Henderson. Leading in the caught stealing category is Derek Jeter, the only OAPBA basestealer to have been nailed more than 100 times with 109 CS.

Greg Maddux (122-92, left) and Roger Clemens (98-78) are one-two in all-time wins, innings pitched and hits allowed. Maddux and Tom Glavine rank one-two in total runs and earned runs allowed.

The league strikeout king is Clemens (1,521) with fireballing Randy Johnson (1,356) second and Greg Maddux third.

Mariano Rivera's career ERA of 2.34 tops runner-up Rick Aguilera (2.41). Rivera, with 276 saves far outranks second place Trevor Hoffman (177 saves).

The year-by-year stats for every single player who has appeared in OAPBA, beginning in 1988, is listed below. Enjoy poring through the records.
